TESTIMONIALS

I support Vanguard Culture because it fills a much needed void in the San Diego artistic community by encouraging collaboration in the arts - providing synergy and energy to artists from various artistic disciplines. This year's season is aptly titled "Catalyst" since Vanguard Culture events spark dynamic and exciting arts experiences.

- Michele Lowenstein | Actress, Attorney,
Financial Analyst & Vanguard Culture
Board Secretary

Vanguard Culture is an amazing organization that supports all forms of art: writing, culinary, performance, and more! I support Vanguard Culture because they create a unique community, and a safe, fun space for all artists."

- Natalie Neece | PR Professional &
VC Cultural Correspondent

I originally got involved with Vanguard Culture because I wanted a publication to hang my hat on and also wanted to get more involved in San Diego's arts and culture scene. I have gotten even more than that—I got a second family. What inspires me about VC is that I love having a space to run with my creativity and fully get to express my soul in writing. I also love being around so many individuals who are so unique and creative in their own ways.

- Cori Wilbur | Freelance Journalist, Dancer & Vanguard Culture Cultural Correspondent

I absolutely love the idea of creatives getting together, and having a venue to "try things on" to create things without limits/boundaries that allow them full license to explore a concept/idea outside the box without the constraints of social norms/values or pressures of the necessary monetization of the arts. We all have to make a living and we live in a world where all too often our ability to express ourselves is foreshortened.. Vanguard Culture represents an enlivened space of full color/full expression. There is so much value in play!

- Tara Graviss | Executive Director of Arts for Learning San Diego & Vanguard Culture Advisor

"I noticed that the arts coverage had writer voices that were accessible and distinctive. It made me smile. I liked that Vanguard Culture was bringing people and artists together in thoughtful, fresh events and it inspired me to get more involved in the creative side of the conversation."

- Miguel Gongora Jr. | Theatre Professional & Vanguard Culture Events Manager

TESTIMONIALS

Vanguard Culture was a creative catalyst for me. They were an open resource that encouraged me, provided free professional development guidance and showcased events that inspired me to create a business card and own the word "ARTIST". I am lucky enough to have found a creative passion and I've learned that collaboration and networking with other creative minds is a beautiful catalyst for inspiration. It changes your world when you find others that elevate the importance of creative pursuits.

- Sheila Noseworthy | Fine Glass Artist

Vanguard Culture inspires me because it is a confluence of diverse artists. By bringing culinary, performance, written, and visual arts into one supportive space, San Diego creatives get to collaborate in a whole new way. At the same time, art lovers receive a robust understanding of the local scene! I've loved being a part of this organization for nearly five years and VC's growth is a testament to the city's hunger for partnership, education, and beauty.

- Kristen Schweizer | Theatre Professional & VC Cultural Correspondent

"I am involved with Vanguard Culture to help bring well rounded arts programming and education to San Diego and the border region. Their support of visual and performing arts across our region is a great resource that brings awareness to the creative community here in San Diego."

- scott b. davis | Founder of MEDIUM Festival of Photography & Vanguard Culture Advisor

Vanguard Culture inspires me to dream big and see vast creative potential in everyone. Susanna Peredo Swap's passion and creativity makes me believe that our greatest work can only come from doing what we love."

- Chris Kowynia | Vanguard Culture Public Relations & Marketing Intern

Vanguard Culture is one of the most innovative social enterprises I know, constantly redefining what we know about the arts. It enriches the community through collaborative creativity, bringing together the best of local cuisine, dance and media. -

Dorothy Leonard | Author, Professor Emerita at Harvard Business School & Vanguard Culture Advisor

It was an honor to work for such a dynamic organization that puts together innovative and collaborative events and professional development workshops for artists and art enthusiasts... I will go into the next chapter of my life confident because of my experience with Vanguard Culture!

TESTIMONIALS

"Your approach to the arts and your active participation in the cultural life of San Diego aren't formulaic. You look at creativity with fresh vision. Many of Vanguard Culture's stories aren't being told elsewhere and that is a plus."

"Vanguard Culture is really good at illuminating exciting programs and events that are off the mainstream radar and have a strong local character."

"An Artist @ The Table provides a unique dining experience like no other events I have been to. It is an excellent mix between learning from an influential artist and learning about their vision and their work, along with a delicious food and wine pairing to end the night. It is rare that you get to make that personal, one-on-one connection with such notable artists."

"Vanguard Culture has been a very welcome addition to the creative arts scene in San Diego. I've been especially pleased to witness their flexibility and growth as they've settled in, seamlessly folding the culinary arts and special events into their mission along with the performing and visual arts.

Of their varied goals, most notable for me has been their approach to seeking out and promoting unusual events and programs that do not often get noticed in San Diego's traditional arts coverage. They have a penchant for highlighting the truly unique. Vanguard Culture creates space for creative innovation to grow-- for events to come into the light -- for creatives to gather--and for communities to intersect."

Lizbeth Persons Price | SDSU Public Affairs for the Arts,
College of Professional Studies & Fine Arts (PSFA)

"Vanguard Culture is creative in its presentation of information about arts events. They avoid the usual pro forma approach to the description of visual, performances, and culinary arts. The off-beat and the traditional are celebrated on Vanguard's digital pages---really refreshing"

"Vanguard Culture provides a much-needed gap between San Diego 'fine art,' the street, and everything in between. I like that it is almost like the Vulture publication for San Diego and a great resource for art lovers who are open-minded to new experiences."
